

Baboon business

Baboons at Sarova Taita Salt Lick Lodge, in Taita Hills are amazing. The animals amuse tourists. Those eager to see the 'Big Five' often stop for the entertainment galore. During a tour to the sanctuary at the weekend, a 'couple' blocked our van and started a tug of war. Initially they were friends exchanging sweet nothings, then suddenly, a fight ensued. It is perhaps their business to entertain the tourists, but they are sufficiently philanthropic not to charge any fee! (PHOTOS: BONIFACE THUKU/ STANDARD)
